PICTURE BOOK PICK

I enjoy picture books because they have something for the young and old. They are useful in illustrating a concept, AND for teaching reading and writing skills. I have also found that they can contain an art gallery between their covers or sometimes even a museum.

I picked this book as my favorite this trimester to celebrate the 50th year anniversary of the Civil Rights Movement and it illustrates one of my first memories of prejudice I experienced on my first family vacation to the south. www.fir.fallett.com

Summer Reading

Melleny Thomasson from Mukilteo Library visited us on May 26 and 27 to share the titles and activities for the Sno-ise Summer Reading Program. Check out her list at: snoisle.org/teens.

Everett Public Library's Program can be found at: <http://epls.org>.

Checkout the library or catalog homepage for Mrs. Jackson's Summer Reading list.
